MARK MCEWAN

THE MCEWAN GROUP

Mark McEwan

Chef • Entrepreneur • Restaurateur

Using food as the ultimate palate for his boundless creativity and energy, Mark McEwan has led the restaurant scene in Toronto for many years. He joins the ranks of the truly innovative with ground-breaking Toronto standards from "North 44" to "Bymark" to the always interesting "ONE" in Yorkville. With "Fabbrica", he captivates patrons with rustic Italian fare in a warm, contemporary setting at The Shops at Don Mills.

But, it doesn't stop with dining - in early 2009 he opened McEwan at The Shops at Don Mills.

Always attentive to the changing needs of the consumer, he created a jewel box of a grocery store that caters to foodies and chefs alike.

He is also the author of the best seller "Great Food at Home" and "Fabbrica" - the cookbook based on the recipes featured in his latest restaurant.

Mark's cookware line by Fresco® is sold nationally with his chef's stamp of approval for a high quality product in the kitchen.

Mark is also currently the head judge on "Top Chef Canada".

His first show for The Food Network, "The Heat" was a riveting behind the scenes look at North 44 Caters as well as the building of McEwan - a ratings winner.

And for the future... this Canadian "original" is rarely still and always innovative and "out of the box".
